Aree Tanavalee, MD.,

President of the Royal College of Orthopaedic Surgeons of Thailand

INVITATION OF THE KOREAN ORTHOPAEDIC ASSOCIATION THE 63rd ANNUAL CONGRESS OF THE KOA

Dear Professor Aree Tanavalee,

On the behalf of the organizing committee of the KOA, it is our great honor and pleasure to cordially invite you, the President of the Royal College of Orthopaedic Surgeons of Thailand to the 63rd Annual Congress of the Korean Orthopaedic Association, which will be held October 17-19, 2019 at the Grand Hilton Seoul, Korea. We are also hoping to invite you to the meeting as an invited speaker if possible. We highly admire your expertise and knowledge in the field, and believe your contribution will be an important element to the success of the congress.

KOA will cover your hotel accommodations during the congress and offer free registration. You will also be invited to the following complimentary hospitality; Welcome Dinner on October 16 and Presidential Dinner on October 17.

Should you accept our invitation, we request that you give a short speech at the Presidential Dinner. If you want to give a lecture or a talk, we would be more than happy to arrange it. Please send us your talk or lecture title.

We greatly appreciate your contribution to the 2019 Annual Congress of the KOA. We hope that you would accept our invitation and share your insights on current issues in the field of orthopaedics. We look forward to receiving your acceptance of this invitation and welcoming you to Seoul, Korea for our 63rd Annual Congress of the Korean Orthopaedic Association.
